

Statewide Resource List

You can find a calendar of eviction clinics offering free legal advice at this website. <https://indianalegalhelp.org/events/> They are happening throughout the state and some are virtual and over the phone. This event calendar is currently scheduled to the end of February 2023.

Apply for legal help with Indiana Legal Services.

To apply online go to <https://www.indianalegalservices.org/applyonline>

To apply by phone, call 1 844-243-8570 Monday - Friday from 10 am - 2 pm (EST).

It's been announced that kiosks will be coming to communities around the state to help Hoosiers facing eviction with legal resources and services.

<https://indianalegalhelp.org/housing-kiosk/> Delaware County's kiosk will be at the Maring-Hunt library branch

Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana has many fact sheets available about housing laws, protections, accommodations, accessibility, criminal screening, lending, gender identity, etc. You can find them at <https://www.fhcci.org/about/publications/> and they are available in languages beyond English. Also, check out their education page full of further information.

<https://www.fhcci.org/programs/education/>

Indiana Legal Services and Eskenazi Health created a video series called Knowing Your Rights as an Indiana Renter. Find the videos on YouTube on Eskenazi Health's account in their playlists tab. <https://www.youtube.com/@eskenazihealth2516/playlists>